32. NEW FOREST ASSOCIATION OF LOCAL COUNCILS

Members received details of the following meetings regarding NFALC:

- A meeting on Thursday 29 July at 7.30 pm (Appletree Court, Lyndhurst) to receive proposals from Ringwood and Hythe for a new association
- The AGM of the Association on Thursday 30 September at 7.30 pm (Appletree Court).

It was agreed that, if possible, the Council should be represented at the meeting (Chairman and Councillor Samways?).

33. FINANCE MATTERS

Payments: The following expenditure was authorised:

Cheque no

755	Copythorne Parish Hall (Meeting accommodation, July – September)	£58.50
756	HALC (Chairmanship course, 18 June)	£29.38

Grants: The Clerk requested confirmation that the grants to outside organisations discussed at the previous meeting should now be paid. Agreed, that the grants shown in minute 26/6/10 be paid. In the case of First Responder, it was agreed that the organisation be asked if they can provide first aid training for local residents.

Copythorne Amateur Theatrical Society: An e-mail from the Chairman of CATS enquired about the possibility of financial aid. Agreed, that the application be deferred to the Council meeting on 27 July.

34. LOCAL TRANSPORT PLAN STRATEGY

Members noted the launch of a 12-week consultation on a proposed Local Transport Plan 3 (LTP3) Strategy for the County. Copies of the documents had been supplied to the Chairman and Councillor Moriarty.

35. MEMBERS' REPORTS

Councillor Moriarty: Matters raised at a recent New Forest Consultative Panel meeting included concern at the ongoing situation at Copperfield, Pollards Moor Road and the number of outstanding enforcement notices in the National Park. On the latter item, the new Chief Executive had met with Steve Avery to discuss proposed action.

Councillor Stenson: Bollards erected in the highway verge outside Crossways, Newbridge. Clerk to ascertain purpose.

Trees overhanging highway near Southbrook Farm, Newbridge. Clerk to pursue

Councillor Milsom: Queried status of sign in Winsor Road regarding new 30 mph speed limit. The sign was intended to be temporary but its retention provided a useful reminder of the speed limit.

Hedge also blocking the footway near the pumping station in Pollards Moor Road.

Councillor Samways: A-board opposite The Compass still not removed. An additional sign was now being displayed.

Councillor Lady Kara Hawks: A-board displayed at the Sir John Barleycorn public house.
