- June 4th - She attended the New Forest Association of Local Council's ("NFALC") AGM which focused on the issue of Local Government Re-Organisation ("LGR"). NFALC agreed to support New Forest Together's campaign to keep the NFDC area wholly in one new Unitary Authority.

- June 2nd - He had attended the Parish Hall Committee meeting on June 2nd. Topics discussed included the ongoing upgrades to the café; vandalism to the newly planted hedge in the rear field; the designation of the hall as an HCC emergency "Rest Centre".
- June 4th - He had attended the NFALC AGM and made mention of the need for a joined up approach to flooding across the New Forest. This point will also be made at the next NFNPA North East Quadrant meeting.
- That the Phone box in Winsor Road has been repaired. It needs repainting and volunteers are invited to help with this.
- That flooding and ditching matters had been raised (by Cllr. Johnstone) in her report to the Annual Parish Meeting which also sought support for a "Flood Prevention Committee" for Copythorne. Sadly the request was met with silence from the audience.

She has also noticed that the Bartley road sign at the crossroads has disappeared. The Clerk will report this to HCC Highways for replacement.
